1. Website Disclaimer

The information provided by Tessa Tools Ltd (“we”, “us”, or “our”) on www.tessa-tools.org (the “Site”) and in our training, workshops, and resources is for general informational and educational purposes only.

All content is prepared in good faith and reflects current understanding of ethical AI, social care practice, and relevant legislation at the time of publication. While we make every effort to ensure accuracy, we make no representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, regarding the completeness, adequacy, reliability, or suitability of any information on the Site or in associated materials.

Under no circumstances shall Tessa Tools Ltd be liable for any loss, damage, or inconvenience arising from the use of this website or its contents. Your use of the Site and reliance on any information provided is strictly at your own discretion and risk.

2. Professional Disclaimer

Tessa Tools Ltd provides consultancy, training, and educational materials to promote digital literacy and ethical use of AI in social care. These resources are designed to support professional development and reflective practice. They do not constitute statutory guidance, legal advice, or case-specific supervision.

Practitioners must continue to apply their own professional judgement, follow local authority policies, and comply with relevant laws and professional standards, including the Care Act 2014, the Mental Capacity Act 2005, and the Social Work England Professional Standards.

3. Testimonials Disclaimer

The Site may include testimonials from users of our services. These reflect the real experiences and opinions of individual users. Results and experiences vary and are not guaranteed to represent all users of our products or services.

Testimonials may appear in written, audio, or video form and are reviewed prior to publication. Minor edits may be made for clarity or brevity, but meaning and intent are not altered. The views and opinions expressed belong solely to the individuals providing them and do not reflect the official views of Tessa Tools Ltd. No testimonials are paid or incentivised.

4. External Links

Our Site may contain links to external websites or third-party content. These are provided for convenience and informational purposes only. Tessa Tools Ltd does not control or endorse the content of external sites and accepts no responsibility for their accuracy, reliability, or legality.

5. Updates

This disclaimer may be updated periodically to reflect changes in law, practice, or company operations. Any revisions will be posted on this page with an updated date of effect.
